

OPEN CALL FOR RESIDENCY 2024

We're thrilled to announce an exciting opportunity for photographers like you who are passionate about art, exploration, and storytelling.

Embark on a transformative artistic journey with Return2Ithaca, an esteemed artist residency program inviting Greek and International photographers to the captivating island of Ithaca for a 22-day immersive experience.

Theme: "Somewhere Called Home": In 2024, we delve into the profound concept of "home." Through a unique blend of personal exploration and engagement with the island's rich history and the universal themes of the Odyssey, artists will craft their narratives inspired by the theme.

Opportunity to work closely with acclaimed curators: Alejandro Castellote (ES), Nina Kassianou (GR), Moritz Neumüller (AT), Sandra Maunac (ES).

Join us in crafting stories, fostering dialogue, and redefining the meaning of "home" through the lens of photography!
